

Kairo McLean

Music Artist

About

Since I was born, music has been something I have always gravitated to. When I was 3 I started playing the drums, at 6 I learned guitar, and now at 15 I am the youngest Juno Award winner.

I am a true connoisseur of all aspects of reggae, rocksteady, and sound-system culture. I take my cues from the likes of Dennis Brown, Gregory Isaacs, Sugar Minott and Peter Tosh.
